Who Should Use Form 140X-SBI?

Use the 2024 Arizona Form 140X-SBI to correct a small business income tax (Arizona Form 140-SBI, 140NR-SBI, or 140PY-SBI) for taxable year 2024, only.

If you are amending a return for any other tax year, use the amended return (Form 140X-SBI) that is available for that specific tax year.

The department will compute the interest and either include it in your refund or bill you for the amount due.

Form 140X-SBI will be your new tax return. This return will change your original return to include the new information. The entries you make on Form 140X-SBI are the entries you would have made on your original small business income tax return had it been done correctly.

Purpose of Form 140X-SBI?

1. Form 140X-SBI is used to rescind a previous election made on the original income tax return. If you are rescinding your election:
 - Complete Form 140X-SBI and enter "0" on lines 4 through 58.
 - Complete Form 140X and enter the correct amount of adjustment for small business income on Form 140X (Residents, line 18 and check box 55R on page 2 of Form 140X); (Nonresidents and Part-year residents, line 21 and check box 55R on page 2 of Form 140X)

2. Form 140X-SBI is also used to correct amounts previously reported on your small business income tax form.

- If you change any amount previously reported on lines 4 through 10, enter the correct amount(s). You must also complete and file Form 140X and correct the amount of adjustment (subtraction) for small business income (Residents, line 18 and check box 18C); (Nonresidents and Part-year residents, line 21 and check box 21C).

You must file both amended returns in the same envelope, when filed.

Your amended 140X-SBI will become your new small business income tax return. Be sure to complete all lines on the amended return.

- If you are not correcting any amounts listed on line 4 through 10 (including filing status) and are only changing an amount previously reported on any of the remaining lines, complete Form 140X-SBI with the correct amounts. In this case, you are not required to complete and file Form 140X along with Form 140X-SBI.

What Will I Need To Complete Form 140X-SBI?

To complete Form 140X-SBI, you will need the following:

- A copy of the 2024 small business income tax return you are amending, including supporting forms, schedules, and worksheets.
- Any notices you received from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) relating to your small business income (federal Schedules B, C, D, E, F and Form 4797) or the department for the tax year you are amending.
- Instructions for the return you are amending. If you have any questions about income items or subtractions, you should refer to the 2024 instructions for your original return. If you do not have the instructions for the form you are amending, you can find them online at our website.

Allow 8 to 12 weeks for your Form 140X-SBI to process.

You cannot e-file your Arizona amended tax return. You must mail your amended income tax return to the department using the address listed on Form 140X-SBI.

AVOID PROCESSING DELAYS: For the proper assembly order, see the mailing instructions for the return you are amending.

When Should I File an Amended Return?

You can file Form 140X-SBI only after filing an original return.

You should file your amended return after your original return has processed. If you are filing Form 140X-SBI for a refund, you must generally file within four years from the date you filed the original return.

If you amend your federal return for 2024 to change the amounts you originally reported from federal Schedules B, C, D, E, F and Form 4797, you must also file an Arizona Form 140X-SBI for 2024.

In this case, you will also be required to file Form 140X to correct the amount of the allowable subtraction taken on your original return (Form 140, 140NR or 140PY) for small business income.

If the IRS makes a change to your federal taxable income for 2024, you must report that change to Arizona. You must file the Form 140X within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. You may use one of the following two options to report this change.

Option 1

You may file a Form 140X-SBI. If you choose this option, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. Include a complete copy of the federal notice with your Form 140X-SBI.

Option 2

You may file a copy of the final federal notice with the department within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. If you choose Option 2, you must include a statement in which you must:

1. request that the department recompute your tax, and
2. indicate if you agree or disagree with the federal notice.

If you do not agree with the federal notice, you must also include any documents that show why you do not agree.

If you choose Option 2, mail the federal notice and any other documents to

When Should I Pay any Tax Owed?

Payment is due in full at the time you file your amended return. If paying by check, make your check payable to Arizona Department of Revenue. Enter your Social Security Number (SSN), Form 140X-SBI and tax year on the front of your check. To make an electronic payment, visit www.AZTaxes.gov.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If you are a surviving spouse amending a joint return, enter the word "Deceased" after the decedent's name. Also enter the date of death after the decedent's name. Sign your name. Enter "Filing as Surviving Spouse" in the area for the deceased spouse's signature. (If someone else serves as personal representative for your spouse's estate, he or she must also sign the return.)

If a refund is due, complete Arizona Form 131-SBI, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Include this form on top of your amended return. For more information see Form 131-SBI and its instructions.

Penalties

We will impose a late payment penalty on your amended return if all of the following apply:

- you file your amended return after the due date of your original return,
- there is tax due on your amended return, and
- you do not pay that tax when you file the amended return.

Even if you do pay the tax due when you file your amended return, we may impose a late payment penalty if any of the following apply:

- you are under audit by the department, or
- the department has requested or demanded that you file an amended income tax return.

We will also impose a late filing penalty if you did not file your original return on time. These penalties apply to taxes due and remaining unpaid after the due date of the original return. Combined late filing and late payment penalties can go up to 25% (.25) of the unpaid tax.

Interest

We charge interest on any tax not paid by the due date even if you have an extension. We charge interest from the original due date to the date of payment. The Arizona rate of interest is the same as the federal rate. Contact one of the phone numbers listed on page 1 for the current interest rate.

General Instructions

NOTE: You must round dollar amounts to the nearest whole dollar. If 50 cents or more, round up to the next dollar. If less than 50 cents, round down.

The line numbers on the Arizona Form 140X-SBI do not match the line numbers on Arizona's small business income tax forms. The proper line on which to enter your change(s) will depend on the nature of the change and the form you are amending. To decide where to enter your changes, use the line descriptions from your original return.

For specific information about tax rates, additions, and subtractions, see the form instructions for the year you are amending.

Tax Year

File this form to amend only a 2024 tax return. If you are amending a return for a fiscal year, enter the beginning and ending dates of the fiscal tax year.

Entering Your Name, Address, and Social Security Number (SSN)

Lines 1, 2 and 3

Enter your name, SSN, and current address. If you are filing a joint amended return, enter your SSNs in the same order as your first names and in the same order as shown on your original return. If your name appears first on the return, make sure your SSN is the first number listed.

If you are changing your filing status from married filing separate to married filing joint and your spouse did not file an original return, enter your name and SSN first.

If you are changing your filing status from married filing separate to married filing joint, you must include your spouse's name and SSN on the second line 1.

Make sure that you put your SSN on every return, statement, or document that you file with the department. Make sure that all SSNs are clear and correct.

You may be subject to a penalty if you fail to include your SSN. It may take longer to process your return if SSNs are missing, incorrect, or unclear.

Foreign Addresses

If you have a foreign address, enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Box 3a - Injured Spouse Protection of Joint Overpayment

Check box 3a only if you and your spouse are filing a joint return (check box 95a) and you or your spouse qualify as an injured spouse and are requesting protection from application of any additional joint overpayment shown on your amended return against the other spouse's delinquencies or debts for back child support, court fees, and fees to counties, cities or educational institutions.

Filing Status

If you qualify as married for federal purposes, you qualify as married for Arizona purposes and must file using the status of either married filing joint or married filing separate.

If you are single you must file as single or if qualified you may file as head of household (see the instructions for the original form you are amending). Check the box for the filing status you are using on this amended return.

NOTE: You cannot use Form 203 to request protection from offset for past-due federal taxes. You must contact the IRS.

You must complete Arizona Form 203, Request for Injured Spouse Protection from Application of Joint Overpayment Against Spouse's Delinquencies and Debts, and include that form with your amended tax returns, when filed. Place the completed form on top of your amended tax income tax returns. For more information, see the instructions for Form 203.

NOTE: If you file an amended return, you cannot request protection from offset of any overpayment shown on your original (or last filed amended) income tax return.

Changing from a joint return to a separate return

If you have an amount due from the joint return that you want to amend, you must pay that amount before you can change your filing status to married filing separate. If we have issued a proposed assessment for that joint return, you must also pay that amount before you can change your filing status.

Changing from a separate return to a joint return

If you or your spouse have an amount due from a separate return that you want to amend, you must pay that amount before you can change your filing status to married filing joint. If we have issued a proposed assessment for either separate return, you must also pay that amount before you can change your filing status.

If you and your spouse are changing from separate returns to a joint return, begin by combining the amounts from your return as originally filed or as previously adjusted (either by you or the department) and the amounts from your spouse's return as originally filed or adjusted. Then make your changes to the combined amounts.

If your spouse did not file an original return, include your spouse's income, deductions, credits, etc., to determine the amounts to enter on the appropriate lines of this form.

Generally, if you file a joint return, both you and your spouse have joint and several liability. This means both of you are responsible for the tax and any interest or penalties due on the return, as well as any amount that may become due later. If one spouse does not pay the tax due, the other may have to.

If filing an amended joint tax return, both of you must sign and date Form 140X-SBI.

NOTE: If you change your filing status on this amended return, you must also amend your original tax return (Form 140, 140NR or 140PY) and change your filing status on that return using Form 140X.

Be sure to enter the correct account number and routing number for your checking or savings account. You may be charged a $50 NSF (non-sufficient funds) fee if you provide an incorrect number. Check with your financial institution to get the correct account and routing number.

The "E-Check" option in the "Payment Method" drop-down box will debit the amount from the checking or savings account that you specify. If you make an electronic payment from your checking or savings account, you will receive a confirmation number. Please keep this confirmation number as proof of payment.

Credit card payment

You can pay with your Discover, MasterCard, Visa, or American Express credit card. Go to www.AZTaxes.gov and click on the "Make a Payment" link and choose the credit card option. This will take you to a third party vendor site (provider). The provider will charge you a convenience fee based on the amount of your tax payment. How Long to Keep Your Return

You must keep your records as long as they may be needed for the administration of any provision of Arizona tax law.

Generally, this means you must keep records that support items shown on your return until the period of limitations for that return runs out.

The period of limitations is the period of time in which you can amend your return to claim a credit or refund or the department can assess additional tax.

A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you underreport the income shown on that return by more than 25% (.25). The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return.

To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552 at www.irs.gov.
